SEC. 2415. The warrants which have been or may hereafter be issued in pursuance of law may be located according to the legal subdivisions of the public lands in one body upon any lands of the United States subject to private entry at the time of such location at the minimum price. When such warrant is located on lands which are subject to entry at a greater minimum than one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre, the locator shall pay to the United States in cash the difference between the value of such warrants at one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre and the tract of land located on. But where such tract is rated at one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre, and does not exceed the area specified in the warrant, it must be taken in full satisfaction thereof.

Same subject. 2 July, 1864, sec. 2 (13 S. L., 379).

SEC. 2417. All warrants for bounty-lands referred to in the preceding section may be located at any time, in conformity with the general laws in force at the time of such location.

NOTE.—No blank forms for bounty-land warrants have been prepared since the adoption of the Revised Statutes. All warrants are therefore issued under the original laws, to wit, the acts of 1847, 1850, 1852, and 1855, and it is so recited in the body of the warrant, which does not indicate that the issue is made under any provision of the Revised Statutes.

SEC. 2418. All the persons enumerated in this section who enlisted in the regular army, or were mustered in any volunteer company for a period of not less than twelve months, and who served in the War with Mexico and received an honorable discharge, or who were killed or died of wounds received or sickness incurred in the course of such service, or were discharged before the expiration of the term of service in consequence of wounds received or sickness incurred in the course of such service, shall be entitled to receive a certificate or warrant for one hundred and sixty acres of land; or at option Treasury scrip for one hundred dollars bearing interest at six per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, at the pleasure of the Government. In the event of the death of any one of the persons mentioned in this section during service, or after his discharge, and before the issuing of a certificate or warrant, the warrant or scrip shall be issued in favor of his family or relatives; first, to the widow and his children; second, his father; third, his mother; fourth, his brothers and sisters.

NOTE.—It is supposed that the preceding section was intended to embody the provisions of the bounty-lands acts of February 11, 1847, and September 28, 1850. The former act, as amended, granted bounty land to the enlisted men of the Mexican war, their widows and children, fathers, mothers, brothers, and sisters. The latter act made similar grants to the commissioned officers of that war, and to the officers and enlisted men of other wars from 1790 to the date of the act, and to the widows and minor children of such officers and enlisted men. In the attempt to combine these two acts in section 2418 above, and by the peculiar construction of that section, those who were actually provided for in the act of 1847, viz, the enlisted men and their heirs, were entirely omitted, while on the other hand the benefits of the act of 1850 were extended to a class of heirs—to wit, fathers, mothers, brothers, and sisters—who were not previously provided for in that act or in any other bounty-land law except in the act of 1847 and amendment. The questions raised by these diversities in the law have, however, been settled by the Department. It is held: 1. That the provisions of the act of 1847 are kept in force by section 5597, Revised Statutes, notwithstanding the provisions of repeal contained in section 5596, Revised Statutes. 2. That the new law incorporated in section 2418 must be given its full force and intent. See (3) paragraph 15, and (4) paragraph 47, title Bounty Land, Digest of Pension Laws, 1885.

Certain classes of persons in the Mexican war, their widows, etc., entitled to forty acres.

11 Feb., 1847, sec. 9 (9 S. L., 126).

SEC. 2419. The persons enumerated in the preceding sections received into service after the commencement of the war with Mexico, for less than twelve months, and who served such term, or were honorably discharged are entitled to receive a certificate or warrant for forty acres,¹ or scrip for twenty-five dollars, if preferred, and in the event of the death of such person during service, or after honorable discharge before the eleventh of February, eighteen hundred and forty-seven, the warrant or scrip shall issue to the wife, child, or children, if there be any, and if none, to the father, and if no father, to the mother of such soldier.

SEC. 2420. Where the militia, or volunteers, or State troops of any State or Territory, subsequent to the eighteenth day of June, eighteen hundred and twelve, and prior to March twenty-second, eighteen hundred and fifty-two, were called into service, the officers and soldiers thereof shall be entitled to all the benefits of section two thousand four hundred and eighteen upon proof of length of service as therein required.

SEC. 2421. No person shall take any benefit under the provisions of the three preceding sections if he has received, or is entitled to receive, any military land-bounty under any act of Congress passed prior to the twenty-second March, eighteen hundred and fifty-two.

Ruling of Commissioner of Pensions, No. 28. Section 2421 should be read and interpreted in the same sense as if the word "other" stood between the words "any" and "act" in the third line of the section, and such will be the construction of this Bureau.

SEC. 2422. The period during which any officer or soldier remained in captivity with the enemy shall be estimated and added to the period of actual service, and the person so retained in captivity shall receive land under the provisions of sections twenty-four hundred and eighteen and twenty-four hundred and twenty, in the same manner that he would be entitled in case he had entered the service for the whole term made up by the addition of the time of his captivity, and had served during such term.

SEC. 2423. Every person for whom provision is made by sections twenty-four hundred and eighteen and twenty-four hundred and twenty shall receive a warrant from the Department of the Interior for the quantity of land to which he is entitled; and, upon the return of such warrant with evidence of the location thereof having been legally made, to the General Land-Office, a patent shall be issued therefor.

SEC. 2424. In the event of the death of any person, for whom provision is made by sections twenty-four hundred and eighteen and twenty-four hundred and twenty, and who did not receive bounty-land for his services, a like warrant shall issue in favor of his widow, who shall be entitled to one hundred and sixty acres of land in case her husband was killed in battle; nor shall a subsequent marriage impair the right of any widow to such warrant, if she be a widow at the time of making her application.

An Act Making Appropriations for the Civil and Diplomatic Expenses of Government for the Year Ending the 30th of June, 1850, and for Other Purposes.

Act 3 Mar., 1849
(9 S. L., 366).

Redemption of Treasury scrip issued under the act to raise for a limited time an additional military force.

For the redemption of the treasury scrip heretofore issued for the satisfaction of the bounties promised to the non-commissioned officers, musicians, and privates, by the ninth section of the act of the eleventh of February, eighteen hundred and forty-seven, to raise for a limited time an additional military force, and for other purposes, and for the satisfaction in money of such bounties due under said section of said act as those to whom they are due may elect to receive in money instead of land, three hundred thousand dollars. And the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby directed, immediately after the passage of this act to give notice, by publication for sixty days, in at least one of the principal papers in Washington city, Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York, and Boston, and in such other papers as he may deem expedient, that the principal and interest of such scrip as has been or may be issued prior to the first of July, A. D., eighteen hundred and forty-nine, will be paid on that day on presentation at the Treasury of the United States, and that the interest on such scrip will cease on that day. And the said Secretary is further directed not to issue scrip for said bounty after that day, but to pay the same in money out of this appropriation in all cases when the person entitled to the bounty in land shall elect to receive money in lieu thereof. * * *

NOTE.—The compilers of the Revised Statutes seem to have overlooked the above-quoted provision of the act of March 3, 1849 (an appropriation act), which repealed so much of the act of February 11, 1847, as provided for the issue of scrip in lieu of bounty in land, and said provision of the act of February 11, 1847, has been re-enacted in sections 2418 and 2419, Revised Statutes. It is, however, of little importance in this case whether the said re-enactment, in such a codification of old laws as the Revised Statutes purports to be, of a repealed law reinstates that law upon the statute books, for no one is likely to ask for the issue of a scrip certificate for $100 in lieu of a bounty-land warrant whose market value is not less than $175. It appears from the records of this Bureau and those of the Treasury Department that the last scrip certificate was issued June 28, 1849; that all such certificates matured on the 1st of July, 1849, when interest thereon ceased. The reports of the Treasury Department show that all of said certificates have been redeemed except a small number, amounting in value to $3,175. After the repeal of the scrip provision of the act of 1847, the Pension Bureau issued, under the act of 1849, a certificate for $100 in money in lieu of a warrant for 160 acres of land, and $25 in money in lieu of a warrant for 40 acres. The last certificate of this kind issued from this Bureau was dated July 29, 1869. These money certificates bore no interest; they were simply so much money paid the party entitled to the warrant in lieu thereof.

fications of such officer during his official term, and all papers heretobefore or hereafter filed shall be subject to this rule.

Approved, September 1, 1890.

NOTE.—Prior to the passage of the act, of July 1, 1890, it does not appear that there was any law providing, in letter, for the execution of declarations in bounty land claims, but the laws governing the execution of declarations in pension claims were construed by the Department and this Bureau as covering this class of cases.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
July 12, 1911.

REGULATIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS RELATING TO BOUNTY-LAND CLAIMS.

1. Applications.—An application for bounty-land warrant may be made by anyone entitled under the law to such a warrant. The party entitled should execute the application personally unless he be legally incompetent, in which event his duly appointed guardian may make the claim. When an application is signed by a guardian and filed in the Bureau of Pensions, it should be accompanied by a certified copy of the letters of guardianship.

When several minors, or brothers and sisters, are jointly entitled, the application may be made by any one of them in behalf of all, for which authority in proper and legal form, duly witnessed and executed under oath, must be given by the other children, and such authority must be filed in the Bureau of Pensions. The warrant will be issued to all jointly.

Blank forms of application will be furnished claimants upon request therefor. They will not be sent to agents or attorneys in bulk but sample forms will be furnished on application.

2. Applications and affidavits, execution of.—All applications for bounty-land warrants, and affidavits filed in support thereof, must be made before a court of record, or some officer of such court having custody of its seal, or before some officer who, under the laws of the United States or of his State, city, or county, has authority to administer oaths for general purposes.

Where an application or affidavit is executed before an officer authorized as above but not required by law to have and use a seal to authenticate his official acts, he shall file in the Bureau of Pensions a certificate of his official character, showing his official signature and term of office, certified by a clerk of a court of record or other proper officer of the State as to the genuineness thereof; and when said certificate has been filed in the Bureau of Pensions his own certificate will be recognized during his term of office.

Applications and other papers of claimants residing in foreign countries may be made before a United States minister or consul or other consular officer, or before some officer of the country duly authorized to administer oaths for general purposes, whose official character and signature shall be duly authenticated by the certificate of a United States minister or consul or other consular officer.

The officer before whom an application or affidavit is executed must certify in his own handwriting as to his knowledge of the credibility of the witnesses. If they sign by mark the signatures must be attested by two witnesses who can write, and the officer must certify that the contents of their depositions or affidavits were read over to them before he administered the oath.

An application for bounty-land executed before an officer who is claimant's attorney is accepted by the Bureau of Pensions as good and valid, but under the practice such magisterial act vacates any rights which may be conferred upon him by the power of attorney therein embodied.

Evidence executed before an officer who is claimant's attorney, or before any person who has a manifest interest therein, will not be considered. It is held by the Secretary of the Interior, however, that evidence so executed, wherein the certificate of such officer contains a clause setting forth that "he is in no wise interested in the claim nor concerned in its prosecution," is good and valid, but the rights such officer may have had in the case are thereby abandoned. All certificates of executing officers should certify that they have no interest in the claim.

It is desirable that affidavits should be free from erasures and interlineations. When an alteration is made in an affidavit, or an addition is made thereto, it must appear by the certificate of the officer who administered the oath that such alteration or addition was made with the knowledge and sworn consent of the affiant.

The official certificates of judicial officers using a seal, or of commissioned officers of the Army or Navy in actual service, will be accepted without being sworn to; all other witnesses must testify under oath.

3. Evidence, character of.—Every fact required to be proved should be shown by the best evidence obtainable.

Wherever it is indicated in these regulations and instructions that a fact may be proved by more than one kind of evidence, the classes of evidence are named in the order of their value. Evidence of a lower class will not be accepted unless it be shown that none of a higher class can be obtained. Copies of records should be certified by the officer having custody thereof; and if he has no seal by which to authenticate his signature, the certification should be under oath.

4. Evidence from prior claims, or records.—Any evidence already on file in the Bureau of Pensions or in any other office of the Government of the United States may be made available in a claim for bounty-land if a particular and definite description of the matter in which it has already been used be furnished the Bureau of Pensions.

5. Witnesses.—Witnesses should not merely confirm the statements of other parties, but should give a detailed statement of the facts known to them in regard to the matter concerning which they testify, and should state how they obtained a knowledge of such facts.

It is desirable that the facts required to be proved in the adjudication of a bounty-land claim should be shown, if possible, by the testimony of persons other than near relatives of the claimant.

Every witness should state his age, whether he has any interest—direct or indirect—in the prosecution of the claim in which he may testify, and should give his post-office address, with street and number, or rural free delivery route, if any. A claimant should promptly notify the Bureau of Pensions of any change of residence during the pendency of his claim.

6. Service.—Service, to give title to bounty-land, must have been rendered prior to March 3, 1855, for a period of at least fourteen days, or in a battle; and if in the Regular Army or Navy, must have been in some war in which the United States were engaged.

Where no record evidence of the service for which a bounty-land warrant is claimed exists, parole evidence may be admitted to prove the service performed, but in no case will parole evidence be admitted to vary or discredit the length of any service shown by the rolls.

Where service was rendered by a substitute, he is the person entitled to bounty-land, and not his employer, unless the latter also served the requisite period to give title to bounty-land and then furnished a substitute, in which event—if both employer and substitute served the length of time required by law—each might be entitled for his respective term of actual service.

7. Identity.—In all cases the identity of the claimant as the person, or the heir of the person, who rendered the service must be shown by the best obtainable evidence.

8. Evidence in widows' claims.—Claims by widows must be supported by satisfactory proof of the marriage of the claimant to the soldier on account of whose service her claim is made, of his death, and of her widowhood—that is, that she is unmarried—at the time of making application.

Marriage.—The marriage of the claimant to the person on account of whose service and death the application is made should be shown—

(a) By a duly verified copy of a public or church record; or

(b) By the affidavit of the clergyman or magistrate who officiated; or

(c) By the testimony of two or more eyewitnesses to the ceremony; or

(d) By a duly verified copy of the church record of baptism of the children; or

(e) By the testimony of two or more witnesses who know that the parties lived together as husband and wife, and were recognized as such, and who shall state how long, within their knowledge, such cohabitation continued.

The widowhood of the claimant at the time of making application must be shown by the testimony of credible witnesses who have personal knowledge of the fact.

9. Evidence in minors' claims.—In addition to the proof required in widows' claims, applications in behalf of minors must be supported by proof that they are the legitimate children of the person on account of whose service the claim is made, that the widow is dead, and that they are the only surviving children of such person who were under the age of twenty-one years on March 3, 1855, or were born subsequent to that date.¹

To establish the legitimacy of the children, the marriage of the mother to their father and the births of such children must be proved.

The dates of birth of children should be proved—

(a) By a duly verified copy of the public record of births, or the church record of baptisms; or

(b) By the affidavit of the physician who attended the mother; or

(c) By the testimony of persons who were present at the births, who should state how they are now able to fix the precise dates.

10. Evidence in claims of fathers, mothers, brothers, and sisters.—In a claim by a father, mother, or brothers and sisters, the relationship to the person on account of whose service the claim is made must be clearly established, and the death of all persons who would, under the law, have a prior title to the bounty-land, must be proved.

11. Evidence to complete claims of deceased persons.—In completing the claim of a deceased person leaving no successor to whom the title would descend under the bounty-land laws, the legal representatives must furnish proof of the death of the claimant; and if he died intestate, proof of heirship will be required, which proof must show the name, age, and post-office address of each of his heirs at law, and their relationship to the deceased; and where a will is left a duly certified copy of it, with letters of probate, must be presented; and in either case full authority must be given by the heirs or devisees, if adults, or by their guardians, if minors, for the delivery of the warrant to some designated person. If an executor has been designated by will, the claim should be completed by him. If there be no executor, a duly appointed administrator of the estate of the deceased may be recognized to complete the claim.

12. Duplicate warrants, rules governing the issue of.—First. Whenever a warrant has failed to reach the hands of the party entitled to receive it and to whom it was sent, or has been lost or destroyed after having been received, in order to prevent the issuing of a patent to a fraudulent holder of the same the actual owner must at once file in the General Land Office a caveat in the form of an affidavit, duly authenticated, setting forth the nature of his title to the warrant and the particulars as to its loss or destruction, and giving his post-office address; and these facts must be established by satisfactory evidence filed in the Bureau of Pensions.

Second. He must give public notice of the facts in the case at least once a week for six successive weeks in some newspaper of general circulation published at or nearest the place to which the warrant was directed, or where the loss occurred. In such publication (a copy of which must be furnished to the Bureau of Pensions with the affidavit of the publisher as to its due appearance) the intention must also be expressed of applying to the Commissioner of Pensions for a reissue of the lost warrant, which must be minutely described.¹

Third. The filing of the caveat in the General Land Office and the advertisement of the loss being only preliminary steps toward the observance of the regulations,

Notice is hereby given that I, _____, am the legal owner of bounty-land warrant No. _____, for _____ acres, issued under the act of _____, in the name of _____, and that said warrant having been lost (or destroyed), I intend to make (or have made) application to the Commissioner of Pensions for a duplicate.

the owner of the lost warrant must file in the Bureau of Pensions, as soon after the discovery of the loss as practicable, his declaration, under oath, duly authenticated, setting forth fully and distinctly the time, place, and circumstances of the loss, and that he never sold, assigned, nor voluntarily parted with his right to the warrant in question.

Fourth. In cases where a reissue of a warrant is sought on the ground of the nonreception of the original warrant, the agent or person to whom it was sent must unite with the warrantee or make a separate affidavit as to its nonreception.

Fifth. If the applicant for the reissue is not the person to whom the warrant was issued, but claims to be the owner thereof by purchase for a valuable consideration, he must give the name and residence of the warrantee, the name and residence of the person of whom he bought it, and, as far as he may know or can ascertain, the names and residences of each of the several parties through whom the title of the warrant descended to him from the warrantee, and adduce satisfactory evidence in proof of each and all his statements in reference thereto.

Sixth. The identity of the applicant must be satisfactorily established, and the credibility of each and every affiant must be duly certified by the magistrate administering the oaths, and his official character and signature must be duly authenticated as hereinbefore indicated. No warrant will be reissued under these regulations until after the expiration of three months from the date of the filing of the petition in the Bureau of Pensions, and not then if it shall appear that the original warrant is in existence.

The foregoing regulations will be strictly enforced in every instance.

13. Inquiries and additional evidence.—All inquiries addressed to the Bureau of Pensions and all additional evidence filed therein should contain a description of the particular claim concerning which the inquiry may be made or in which the additional evidence is to be used, viz.: the number of the claim, the name, residence, and post-office address of the claimant, and the name of the person on account of whose services the claim is made together with his company, regiment, and the State from which he enlisted.

14. Records, information from.—Information will not be furnished from the records relative to service in cases where a title to bounty-land is supposed to exist. The law will be explained, upon inquiry, but no opinion can be given as to title of individuals to bounty-land until their claims are properly before the Bureau of Pensions.

Parties in making application for bounty-land warrants should state as fully as possible all the facts known to them relative to the service of the person through whom the claimant derives title, giving the personal description of such person and his places of residence at the time of service and since; the Bureau of Pensions will then apply any evidence found in any Department of the Government of the United States to the settlement of the claim.

15. Originals or copies of papers.—All papers or exhibits filed as evidence in a bounty-land claim become a part of the record. Neither the original nor a copy, duly certified, of any essential paper, except a certificate of discharge from the military or naval service of the United States, filed in a claim before the Bureau of Pensions, will be furnished except upon the call of a court or a department wherein the same is to be used as evidence; and if for use in a court upon the following conditions:

The Bureau of Pensions should be advised of the nature of the suit, the name of the parties thereto, and in what court the action is pending.

The party who desires to use the certified copy or copies should state what he expects to prove by the same, and make oath in due form that this evidence is material to his cause; that the object of its use can not be attained by the substitution of any other evidence; that without it he may suffer irreparable injury, and that the United States are not involved as parties to the action nor interested in the result thereof.

With such affidavit he should file a request from the judge of the court in which the action is pending for the production of the certified copy or copies.

The papers of which copies are desired should be clearly specified, and the name of the person on whose service the claim was based, the designation of the organization in which he served, and, if possible, the number of the claim or of the bounty-land warrant should be stated, in order that the case may be identified and unnecessary delay avoided.

16. Discharge certificates, copies of.—Certified copies of original discharge certificates on file in the Bureau of Pensions will be furnished upon the application of the person to whom the same was issued, or to his widow or descendants. Such an application should be made in the form of an affidavit setting forth a full description of the person to whom the certificate of discharge was issued, viz., his age at time of enlistment, his occupation, birth-place, height, color of hair, eyes, and complexion; and giving the date and place of his enlistment or muster into the service, and the date and place of discharge.

17. Assignment and location of warrants.—Inquiries relative to the assignment and location of bounty-land warrants should be addressed to the Commissioner of the General Land Office, Washington, D. C.

18. Soldiers' and sailors' homestead rights.—All communications in regard to the homestead rights granted by law to the officers, soldiers, seamen, and marines, who served during the civil war, the war with Spain, or in the Philippine insurrection, should be addressed to the Commissioner of the General Land Office, Washington, D. C.

19. Bounty in money.—Communications relative to back pay, extra pay, and bounty in money, for army service, should be addressed to the Auditor for the War Department, Treasury Department, Washington, D. C.; and for extra pay, prize money, etc., for naval service, to the Auditor for the Navy Department, Treasury Department, Washington, D. C.
